The laying of the corner stone of the new church in St. Mary's parish yesterday made a great day for Long Island City. The sidewalks were filled. To the procession Greenpoint contributed a large body of men. It was the So-ciety of the Holy Name, and Hugh P. Lavelle led it. The Ancient Order of Hibernians, in full regalia, led by Grand Marshal Philip Smith, Patrick McAllister, and William Murray, took the place of honor in the procession. At 3 o'clock they marched from Springer's Hall to the ferry, and gathered in the members of the order who went from this city and New Jersey. John J. O'Connor and Charles Hacket led the long line of members of St. Patrick's Alliance, At 3:45 the color bearers, Patrick Gilhooley and Michael Carroll, reached the site of the and salengel Carroll, reached the site of the new church, in Vernon avenue and Third street, and then policemen made a way through the crowd for Bishop Loughlin. The Bishop was assisted by Fathers Doberty, Degnan, Mc-Kenna, McGuire, Farley, Hartnet, Carroll, and O'Hare, who walked ahead of the altar boys of the parish.

The corner stone was lowered at 4:07. After

The corner stone was lowered at 4:07. After making the circuit of the walls and blessing them Blahop Loughila mounted the newly laid stone. He read words of wisdom from Solomon, and spoke briefly. While he spoke the procession of the societies filed by him. The silver trowel which was used for the ceremony bears this inscription: Presented to the Rev. John McGuire, master of St. Mary's R. C. Church, L. L. City, by M. J. O'Niel, V. P., of the Conference. Sept. 18, 1987.

the Conference. Sept. 18, 1887.

The old wooden church which stands on the back of the lot will be used for a school house when the new building is occupied. The new church is 127 feet deep and 99 feet wide, and it will seat 1.500 people. It will not be finished until next year, but the builders expect to have it enclosed by Christmas. It is to be of brick with stone trimmings, and it will have a tower 200 feet tail. It will gost $80,000. It was a great day for the wearers of the green, and as the crowd dispersed Father Doherty was seen bearing a basket of green to the parcehial residence. The basket was half full of green-backs, contributed toward the building of the church by the spectators.

HE FELLED HIM WITH HIS CANE. Mr. Forrest Catches a Married Man Pron

You secundrel!" said an elderly man Saturday night in Driggs and South Second streets, Williamsburgh, as he struck a wellsed man on the head with his cane. Following up the blow with a repitition of the remark, he felled him to the walk. When a crowd gathered about and afforded a chance to the man to arise and run away, the old man took the arm of a young girl, who had fallen on a neighboring stoop when he struck the man a neighboring stoop when he struck the man with the cane.

"This girl is my daughter Ella," he said, as some of the crowd repreached him for the assault. "I am Abraham Forrest of Penn street and Wythe avenue, and the villain I struck down is a married man of South Second street. He is a well dressed scoundrel who became acquainted with my daughter at an art reception. He deceived me and I allowed him to visit my house. He said he lived in South Ninth street. When I found out who he was I ordered him from my home and my daughter's company. But he sent one of his children to the house. The child pretended to be hungry, and while food was being given to it I saw it hand a note to my daughter. I suspected something, and watched her. She went out and I followed, and you have seen the result."

The crowd dispersed, after complimenting the old man on his vigor.

OLD MAN LYONS STILL DETAINED. He Sticks to it that he was Hunting Witsesses for his Son's Murder Trial.

Michael Lyons, father of Dan Lyons, the slayer of Athlete Quinn, will hardly be able to attend to-day his son's trial in the General Sessions for murder. He and Thomas Reilly and William Cuff. who were arrested as suspicious characters on Friday afternoon, were rought to Jefferson Market Court again yesbrought to Jefferson Market Court again yesterday morning by Detective Sergeants Lyman and McManus. Lizzie Tillman, a colored servant in the New York Infirmary at 128 Second syence, made affidavit that she saw Lyons coming out of the busement, which contained gurgical instruments and books. Detective Lyman said that he chanced to be in the neighborhood and saw Lyons go into houses and Cuff and Heilly wait for him outside. He made up his mind that they were "working" the housesto steal, and arrested them.

Justice Gorman entertained a complaint against Lyons for unlawfully entering the New York Infirmary, and held him in $1,000 bail for examination this afternoon. Lyons said he was only hunting witnesses for his son, whose trial is set down for to-day.

SHE WORE STOLEN GOODS AWAY.

Mrs. Taffe Caught on a Visit to the Night A little clandestine love affair was spoiled by the Forty-seventh street police on Saturday night. Terhune & Sons, dry good merchants at Fifty-second street and Eighth avenue, complained to Police Captain Killilea last week that some of their stock was myteriously disappearing. Detective Riley spent several nights stehing the store. On Saturday night he say watering the store. On saturday night he saw Mary Ann Taffe enter by the front door, which was opened for her by Night Watchman Edward T. Creech. An hour later she came out with a new sacque and a dress pattern over her arm. Riley arrested her and Creech. In the Yorkville Police Court yesterday both were remanded for examination. The woman, who was in tours, begged Justice Rellly to let her go home. She belongs to a respectable family, is married, and has three children. She lives at 315 West Fifty-second street, and is 30 years old. Creech is 34, and is also married.

COLORED GAMES RAIDED. Pare at the Criterion Club 57 Busky Men of Pashion All Let Go.

Capt. Reilly and Detectives Connolly and Rellly made raids on two colored gambling houses on Saturday night. At the Criterion Club. 442 Sixth avenue, they arrested forty-six colored men, and at the Caterers' Club, 131 West Twenty-sixth street, they arrested eleven The fifty-seven prisoners were arraigned at Jefferson Market Court yesterday morning, in the presence of a big black as-sembly, largely composed of girls in gay hats. Dick Hill and Henry Holland were charged with being the proprietors of the faro lay out at the Criterion Club. They said the club was incorporated. A colored man named Bichard Coleman, living at 418 West Nineteenth street. Coleman, living at 418 west Nineteenin-street, who had been employed by Capt, Reilly, and whom the Captain depended upon to give testimony against the gamblers, did not appear. The police had no evidence to prove that the Criterion Club was a gambling house, and the proprietors and players were discharged. But before Justice Gorman let them go he gave them a lecture.

before Justice Gorman let them go be gave them a lecture.

Capt. Reilly fared no better with his eleven prisoners from the Caterers' Club. The alleged proprietor handed up a certificate of the club's incorporation, and Justice Gorman admitted that there was no evidence presented upon which the prisoners could be held. Ho scolded them and let them go. The arrests were made upon warrants.

Emile Volnille, a bartender, 24 years old, living at 134 Wooster street, charged Joseph Benezech, a hotel and restaurant keeper at 117 Bleecker street, and Baux Clemintz, who says he is Benezech's cook, at Jefferson Market Court yesterday morning with keeping a gambling house. Volaille said that on the night of Sept, 11 he lost $35 in less than an hour playing baccarat with Benezech and Clemintz at their solicitation. Benezech and Clemintz were held.

ADVENTURES OF A LOST DOG.

Presented to an Opera Singer, Sold for 85 and Recovered by the Miners' Arms. Daniel Hamilton, keeper of the Miners rms at 2 Front street, lost his valuable St. Bernard dog last Tuesday. On Saturday afternoon Mr. Hamilton's partner, John Hooker saw the dog in West Sixteenth street in the charge of a young Italian named Augusto Picardi. Hooker had Picardi arrested. Picardi said the dog was given to him by Elljah Honei, Ronei said he had bought the dog for $5 from Frederick Riegert of 23 West Third street, and produced a receipt in proof of his statement. Riegert said he get the dog from Simon Loob, the Secretary of the Maurice Gran cores comments.

Simon Loeb, the Secretary of the Maurice Grau opera company.

These facts came out yesterday morning before Justice Gorman, who heard the case at Jefferson Market. Riogert said that Loeb could be found at a rehearsal at the Star Theatre. Loeb was sent for, and came to court in hot haste with his pretty operatic wife. He said that on last Tuesday, while his wife and he were returning from Staten Island on a ferryboat, a stranger made his wife a present of the dog. Their landlord would not allow them to bring the dog into the house, so he sold the dog to Riogert for $5.

Justice Gorman discharged Picardi, and Mr. Hamilton led his dog out of court.

JUSTICE DUFFY HUSTLED.

Why He Took Grim Pleasure in Fining Twenty Essex Street Peddlers. When Justice Duffy arrived at Essex Market Court yesterday morning he remarked that the condition of Essex street from Canal to Grand street was something which should be looked after by not only the Board of Health but by the police.

It seems his Honor had walked from the junction of Essex street and East Broadway to the court, and had been repeatedly shouldered off the sidewalk by the crowds of Hebrew venders who congregate there. He admitted that he had to finish his journey to court in the middle of the street.

Glancing up at Officer Deevy of the Twelfth precinct, standing waiting for the court to open, Justice Duffy asked who the first prisoner was. Deevy had been in Essex street, just where his Honor had been, and had arrested twenty-three of the crowd—all pediders.

Justice Duffy smiled as he thought what strange things often happen, and proceeded to sentence the twenty-three individually for blocking the street. Each of the offenders was fined from one to three dollars, and with three exceptions the fines were paid.

After all were disposed of the Court remarked that it would be a good thing if the same number were arrested every day. he court, and had been repeatedly shouldered

Not the Man who Drew $500,000. Richard Peniston, a well-known shipping and commission merchant of this city, and a member of the Maritime Exchange, died at his home in Plainfield. N. J., on Tuesday. He was born in Bermida 60 years ago, was educated in England, and was married in Phil-adelphia. He leaves a widow and four children. Mr. Peniston has frequently been confounded with the Eigh-ard Penistan who drew the first prize in the Hawana lottery a few years ago. They were not related.

AND IRONING POWDER. HOW TO WASH AND IRON The art of starching, froming and washing brought to perfection in "Rouse on Diar." Added to starch gives splendid gloss, body, stiffness and pollah. The only washing compound that can be so used. Prevents starch rolling or rubbing up. Makes iron slip easy. Saves labor. Baves three-fourths the starch. A revelation in housekeeping. A boon to women. A new discovery, beats the world. Cleans and purifies everything. Invatuable as the only safe, non-injurious and perfect washer and cleanser for general household purposes.

STARCHING. The most inexperienced Dirt, do as nice washing and ironing as can be done in any laundry. Boiling not necessary. 10 & 25c. pkgs. at all first-class, well stocked Grocers. E. S. Wells, Jersey City, N. J., U. S. A.
